Emergency managers, who oversee disaster contingency planning, public education, and immediate response and recovery, are helping communities prepare for a hurricane season—which begins June 1—that coincides with a global pandemic. Here are some resources to help you stay safe and access the information you need:

A RESOURCE GUIDE FOR THE GULF COAST:

Hurricane preparedness during the COVID-19 pandemic

3-day supply of water (1 gal. per person/day) and non-perishable food; flashlight; portable radio w/ batteries; phone charger; first aid kit; multi-purpose tool; hand sanitizer/soap; personal hygiene items; face masks; gloves

QUESTIONS TO ASK OFFICIALS

- Where will additional shelters be created?
- How will I know where they are and when they open?
- What will COVID-19 screening at shelters look like?
- Will there be public transportation?
- How will evacuation protocols change?
- How do I apply for a FEMA grant if my home was damaged?
- What are other grants/loans I can access outside of FEMA?
- What local disaster recovery groups should I know about?
